

VOORHEES CARRIES NEW JERSEY

The Republican Candidate Wins by a Plurality of 12,000.

Trenton, Nov. 9.—New Jersey has been carried by the Republicans, and Foster M. Voorhees, the Republican candidate, is elected by about 12,000 plurality. Essex county, which was conceded the fighting ground of both parties, has gone Republican by about 5,000, and both houses of the legislature will be Republican. This will insure the election of a Republican to succeed James Smith, Jr., Democrat, in the United States senate. Ex-Congressman John Kean is conceded to be the choice of the Republicans as Senator Smith's successor. The Democrats have elected two of the eight congressmen, Salmon in the Fourth district and Daly in the Seventh.

The only state senator elected by the Democrats is McDevitt in Hudson county. This will make the senate stand 14 Republicans to 7 Democrats. Some irregularity in the printing of the ballots in Morris county may change the result there and defeat Pitney, the Republican candidate for the state senate, and also elect the Democratic assemblyman. The assembly will probably stand 40 Republicans to 20 Democrats. This is allowing to the Republicans the two from Middlesex county, which is very close. The Democratic assemblymen elected are: Hudson, 11; Hunterdon, 2; Monmouth, 3; Salem and Essex each 1 and Warren, 2.

NOT AS POLITICIANS.

"We do not come to you as politicians, seeking some partisan end, nor simply as colored men aroused by the passions of the hour, but, sir, we come as citizens, as students of history and the science of government; as patriots anxious of our country's well, and as American citizens, to ask you, the Chief Executive of this great nation, and Commander-in-Chief of the land and naval forces, to exercise all constitutional power in your invested to protect every American citizen in the enjoyment of his constitutional rights."

THE REIGN OF TERROR.

"The present situation in the state of North Carolina is but an act in the series of the reign of terror inaugurated in 1873, to wrest from the legitimate government the state of North Carolina and to nullify the recent amendment to the constitution of the United States by resorting first to mob violence and then to subterfuge in order to deprive citizens of their right to vote and hold office."

"The lawless reign was first inaugurated in the State of Louisiana and step by step it has worked its way eastward and northward, until it now borders on the State of Virginia, and will soon overshadow the national capital, and ere long the late slaveholder will own his slaves at the base of Bunker Hill."

HAS GONE FAR ENOUGH.

"The thing has gone far enough. This nation is now dealing with new problems in establishing governments in the islands of the sea and we do not want our usefulness impaired before the eyes of the nations of the world by the charge, even though it be tolerably well founded, that we have only a quasi-constitutional government in the United States. The present situation is a grave one, and the attitude of lawless men in the State of North Carolina will be far-reaching in its effects unless it is counteracted by the strong arm of the government."

HACKENBACK, N. J., Nov. 8, '98.

The Lord's Supper was served at the Mt. Olive Church. What has become of all the members of Mt. Olive Church? Rev. Marable stated from the pulpit Sunday night that he had only two persons to hear him preach at the 11 o'clock services and they were not members of the church. Where were the deacons and other members? It is reported that the colored democratic politician, Oliver Thompson had the pleasure of receiving a punch in the nose last week from a Republican lawyer (white) of Hackensack for calling him a liar, and that the lawyer in his speech on last Thursday night at the Town Hall said that Thompson could be bought but he would not stay bought; for he tried to pull him for $20. He could be bought by either party, but was no good to any. Thompson called him a liar and he received the compliment of a punch.

Sam, a young man got drunk from partaking of the dripping of a whiskey barrel, and was placed in a wood-shed by his companions. He was there the next morning. His funeral was preached at the Undertaker's office by Rev. J. L. Marable, Saturday 25th ult. Mrs. Rebecca Hire is on the sick list.

Mr. Thompson is in the hospital. True Reformers, not to your time to do as you say you will do. Thompson is a strong True Reformer.

Mrs. Clara Adamson is having chills again.

Mr. James Dampfield is almost persuaded not to leave Hackensack.

There is a building being erected on High St. It is called the Black Bees, it may possibly get rooms anywhere else, don't occupy any of these. Let some of the White Bees have them or let it stay empty. This name came out in the democratic papers last week.
